

The Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of Louisiana

Uniform Regulations and Specifications

2022

The Knights Templar is a Uniformed Order. Our uniforms should be clean and in good repair at all times. Wear your uniform with great pride!

The Templar Uniforms are worn in conclave meetings and in conferring the Orders. They are only worn in public at authorized ceremonies, events, funerals, churches, and other times as may be authorized by special dispensation of the Grand Commander.

Templar Uniforms may be worn for all Templar occasions, provided that when appearing in public, the entire Commandery MUST be dressed in Class "A" Full-Dress Uniform, or Fatigue Uniform.

The purchase of Templar Uniforms by a petitioner for the Orders in this Grand Jurisdiction is strongly encouraged after receiving the Orders, yet optional with the petitioner. However, each and every elected officer of a Constituent Commandery in this Grand Jurisdiction is required to own or possess a Class "A" Full-Dress Uniform prior to his installation.

The Summer Uniform may be worn from Memorial Day until Labor Day each calendar year, however, this policy may be amended at the discretion of the Grand Commander.

In lieu of the above Templar Uniforms, a Constituent Commandery may provide and use Caps and Mantles within the confines of the Asylum.

USED UNIFORMS

Uniforms are not required to be new if one currently authorized for wear in this Grand Commandery should be procured and is in good condition. Cap

The Cap shall follow the design and specifications of the style worn by the Sovereign Great Pories, 3" in depth and very slightly flared at the top.

- For Past Grand Commanders

The Cap shall be of purple velvet (or silk) and the cross displayed on the front of the Cap shall be the Purple Templar Cross.

- For Past Eminent Commanders

The Cap shall be of bright red velvet (or silk) and the cross displayed on the front of the Cap shall be the red Passion Cross outlined in gold and with gold rays.

- For all other Sir Knights

The Cap shall be of bright red velvet (or silk) and the cross displayed on the front of the Cap shall be the red Passion Cross outlined in white and without rays.

Sword and Scabbard

The Sword and Scabbard shall conform to the regulations of the Grand Commandery.

Sword Sling

The Sword shall be suspended over the right shoulder on a Sling of black leather 1 ½" wide, of tailored or adjustable length according to the height of the Sir Knight, to terminate in two straps to fasten to the two upper rings of the scabbard.

Chain Collar (optional for wear)

The Chain Collar shall be of the following design:

- For Past Grand Commanders

The Chain Collar shall consist of rectangular links that may or may not be attached to a fabric backing of black material and shall rest upon the shoulders. The total circumference of the Chain Collar is to be not more than 48". The links, gold in color for Past Grand Commanders and Past Eminent Commanders, shall contain designs appropriate to rank such as purple or red Templar crosses, designs general to Templary such as crosses indicating the orders of Templary, Cross and Crown insignia or designs not indicative of any other degree or body of Freemasonry or other private organization. The wearers appropriate jewel of office can be suspended from the collar.

- For all other Sir Knights

The Chain Collar as above except that the links shall be silver in color.

Commandery Badge (optional for wear)

The distinctive badge of a Constituent Commandery may be worn on the right breast of the Mantle. The badge will be no less than 5" or more than 8" high. The badge of the Commandery shall be superimposed upon the Malta Cross, or the Malta Cross shall be incorporated within the Commandery badge. The Grand Commandery reserves the right to reject a Commandery's distinctive badge design.

Lapel Pins

No lapel pins of any kind are authorized for wear.
