BY-LAWS of the
GRAND COMMANDERY OF KNIGHTS TEMPLAR
of
WASHINGTON

1.0 ORGANIZATION

All matters concerning the conduct, governance and regulations of affairs of this Grand Commandery of the State of Washington shall be subject to such provisions as are set forth in these by-laws, the powers and authority granted to it by Constitution, Statutes, Disciplinary Rules and the Standing Rules of the Grand Encampment of Knights Templar of the United States of America and the Constitution of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of the State of Washington.

2.0 PRINCIPAL OFFICES AND DOMICILE

The registered office for all official communications shall be at the residence of the Eminent Grand Recorder. This Grand Commandery may maintain offices at such other place or places as the Board of Control may from time to time direct.

3.0 WASHINGTON GRAND COMMANDERY CONCLAVE

3.1 Management The management of the Grand Commandery of Washington shall be vested in the Grand Commandery Conclave. A Board of Control consisting of the Grand Commander, the Deputy Grand Commander, the Grand Generalissimo, the Grand Recorder and the Grand Treasurer shall conduct the general temporal business of this Grand Commandery at the direction of the Grand Commander. All matters coming before the members of the Board of Control shall be submitted to the Grand Conclave in accordance with existing Templar Law.

3.2 Tenure Except as otherwise provided by the Constitution, these By-Laws, Codes, Laws and Statues of the Grand Encampment, the tenure of the Members and Officers of this Grand Commandery shall be for one (1) year or until his successor is chosen and qualified or in such case until he becomes sooner deceased, resigns, is removed or disqualified.

3.3 Power and Rights of the Grand Commandery In addition to the qualifications for Conclaves of this Grand Commandery and the quorum and conduct thereof shall be as set out in Section 4, Conclaves, Section 5, Quorum, Conduct of Conclaves. Sections 6, 7, 8 and 9 entitled Proxies of the Constitution of the Grand Encampment for Grand Commanderies, the Grand Commandery of Washington shall have such powers and assume such duties as are not presently occupied or in the future reserved to itself by the Grand Encampment.

3.4 Power and Rights of Elected and Appointive Officers In addition to the elected and appointive officers as provided in 5.0 hereof and such other powers and rights as are vested in them by the Constitution, Laws and Statutes of the Grand Encampment, the Constitution of this Grand Commandery of Washington or by these By-Laws, the members shall have other such powers and rights as the Grand Commander may designate from time to time.

3.5 (03 a) Stated Conclaves The Stated Conclaves of this Grand Commandery shall be held each year during the month of May at such time and place as may be recommended by the Time and Place Committee composed of members of the York Rite Grand Chapter, Grand Council and the Grand Commandery of Washington and as agreed by the Grand Commander.

3.6 (36 b) Special Conclaves Pursuant to Section 36(b) of the Constitution of the Grand Encampment, the Grand Commander may call a Special Conclave and he shall be required to call a Special Conclave upon the request of the majority of Constituent Commanderies within this jurisdiction of the State of Washington. No business shall be conducted at any Special Conclave save and except that specified by the Grand Commander or set out in the request of the Commanderies.

3.7 Rights and Rules of Conclaves Commandery present in person or by proxy shall be entitled to one vote, except that the presiding officer shall vote only in case of a tie by which he shall decide the issue. Unless otherwise provided by the Constitution, these By-Laws or by law and statute duly enacted, all questions and issues submitted shall be determined by a simple majority vote of those present.

Each member present in person or by proxy, shall be entitled to one vote, except that the Presiding Officer shall vote only in case of a tie when he shall decide the issue. Unless otherwise provided by Grand Encampment law, all questions shall be decided by a majority of all votes cast.

During a conclave an appeal lies to the Grand Commandery from a decision of the Grand Commander save on points of order. At all other times the decisions of the Grand Commander shall have full force and effect, but they must be reviewed at its next annual conclave. If such decisions involve the construction or interpretation of the Constitution, By-Laws, Laws, Statutes, Rules or Regulations of either the Grand Encampment or this Grand Commandery an appeal lies to the Grand Commandery.

The business of the Annual Conclave shall be accomplished in one day. Devine Services shall be held on the day or evening proceeding the business session. The installation of officers may be held in the afternoon or evening of the business session.
